

Royal Academy of Engineering

#IamAnEngineer

Engineering and art have provided me with literal and spiritual escapes. As a chemical engineer I love the way elements and compounds react with each other. My interests in mixed media art, and as a life coach, help me to see - I love to see how change happens. Materials can build new forms.

Polina